

2026, Asia's biggest sports event comes to Aichi-Nagoya

In 1951, the Asian Games begins.

Every four years, the games bring Asia together in a celebration of sport, where world-class athletes and young talents compete, strive to reach the future. Their passion and determination transcend borders, cultures, and ethnicities, touching hearts of people around the world. The spirit of the Games moves our heart and the history carries on. The Games is created by each and every one of us, as we come together to shape One Asia.
