What is the City of Nagoya enrollment grant?

This program aims to offer 70,000 yen with no repayment obligation to cover expenses when your child will enroll in high school, etc. in Aichi Prefecture.

Target

An applicant must meet all the requirements below.

- A third-year junior high school student who resides in the city with their guardians and who is enrolled in junior high school, etc. in Aichi Prefecture as of July 1
- Plans to enroll in high school, etc. in Aichi Prefecture (a correspondence course outside the prefecture also covered)
- Meets the financial conditions

Those who meet one of the conditions below are eligible.

- The total amount of "tax base amount of the municipal inhabitants' tax × 6% − adjusted deduction amount of the municipal inhabitants' tax × 3/4 for FY2026" of all the guardians is less than 174,300 yen.*
- Those who are determined to be eligible for the city's school financial aid in September and beyond (excluding persons requiring public assistance as prescribed in the Public Assistance Act)

* Even if you are determined to be ineligible for the city's school financial aid, you may be determined to be eligible for the enrollment grant because the scope of persons subject to income assessment is different.

* Even if revenue exceeds the baseline amount, when it decreases significantly based on grounds not attributable to you, you may be determined to be eligible due to a sudden change in household income.

* If you reside outside Japan and are not subject to tax, or if you do not declare inhabitants' tax, you are not determined to be eligible.
